We all are aware about history giving every country a period when it advances its development journey manifold. In a way, this is the golden age (Amritkaal) of that country.

This is the golden age (Amritkaal) for India. This is the period in India's history when the country is going to take a quantum leap. Viksit Bharat @2047 is the vision to make India a developed nation by 2047, the 100th year of independence.

You being the main stake holders of journey ahead are requested to share your ideas for achieving the goal of Viksit Bharat by 2047. Every idea matters and yours are critical as you are the future leaders.

For capturing your ideas a webpage "Ideas for the Vision of Viksit Bharat@2047" has been developed and you can submit your feedback on mygov.in concerning your vision of Viksit Bharat by 2047.

You are being aligned with a Faculty member who will guide you through the process and will contact you shortly. You will submit your response only after speaking to the concerned Faculty and taking his/her inputs.
